

CAW Local 555 Members Ratify New Collective Agreement

CAW Local 555 Members, representing support staff at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario have voted overwhelmingly in favour of a new 3 year Collective Agreement.

Local 555 Members voted 97.2 per cent in favour at a ratification meeting held at the Hamilton Convention Centre on June 14, 2006. Leslie Steinberg, Chair of Bargaining Committee stated: "The Bargaining Committee would like to thank all of our Members for their show of support and confidence during these negotiations in which we were able to negotiate the best Collective Agreement at McMaster."

"This is a major victory which was possible because of the overwhelming support of the CAW Membership. This is an historic day for CAW Local 555 as we have moved to the forefront of our sector (post secondary education) and have proven that we are stronger together!" added President Mina Sarajcic.

Thank you for your support.

In solidarity,

The CAW Local 555 Bargaining Committee

Denise Anderson, DeGroote School of Business
 Otto Geiss, Classroom Audio Visual Services
 Matt Root, Bookstore
 Mina Sarajcic, DeGroote School of Business
 Leslie Steinberg, Henderson Research Centre

CAW Local 555 --- "UNITED IN BARGAINING"

