Did you know?

The CAW has fought for the rights of the LGBT community. We have worked to challenge homophobia and transphobia in our workplaces, and to negotiate collective agreements to protect and to provide equal access to all benefits for our lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans members and their families.

On Tuesday 12 October 2010, the university campus will celebrate National Coming Out Day in the MUSC Marketplace between 11:30 am and 1:30 pm. National Coming Out Day is an internationally-recognized awareness day for coming out and discussion about gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) issues. Together, the LGBT community and allies have changed laws and attitudes and made significant gains toward equality.

CAW Local 555 is a proud sponsor of this event and encourages members to come out in support of this event. There will be free cake, free copies of the CAW Allies booklet and free copies of the Transitioning in the Workplace booklet, along with information from all participating organizations.

See you on Tuesday!

In Solidarity,

CAW Local 555
