

This message has been approved for general distribution to the CAW Local 555 Membership by Matt Root, President

Do not reply to this message - Reply to caw555@cawlocal555.ca

Dear Members,

The Education Committee would like to draw your attention to the following course being offered by the McMaster University Labour Studies Certificate program:

Women, Work & Trade Unions (course #64-882)
Saturday and Sunday, October 23rd & 24th, 2010
9:00 am - 4:00 pm both days

This course is ideal for any of our members interested in learning about the central roles women have played in improving our workplaces. This course examines workplace issues from the perspective of women's work experiences. The course will draw on participants' own knowledge and experiences and will use this as a basis for discussing how we can make our workplaces more inclusive for all workers.

Whether you are interested in taking courses for self interest, or working toward obtaining the Labour Studies Certificate, you will find this course of value.

This course is eligible for Tuition Assistance.

A more detailed course description and additional information can be found at: <http://www.labourstudies.mcmaster.ca/hdlc-mac-mohawk-certificates/course-information/?searchterm=64-882> or contact Sharon Molnar at molnars@mcmaster.ca for further information.

Recommended by your
CAW Local 555
Education Committee

Website: <http://www.cawlocal555.ca>
Executive Contacts: <http://www.cawlocal555.ca/doclinks/execbd.pdf>
Steward Contacts: <http://www.cawlocal555.ca/doclinks/jtstc.pdf>
