49 events currently registered to happen in Canada

Only 1 International Women's Day event hosted by CAW Local 555
Women's Committee at the Hamilton Convention Centre

Celebrate women's achievements of the past & present and look at the future of the ever-changing female role in society. As of today almost 300 events are posted to happen all around the world by women to recognize March 8th. You can attend CAW 555's event with release time from your job.*

A Celebration of 100 years of International Women's Day!

Tuesday, March 8, 2011
9:00 am to 4:00 pm
Hamilton Convention Centre

Registration for this event will begin on Feb 8, 2011 (watch your email for registration information.) The day is full of fun, thought-provoking and reflective activities that will educate you about the struggles and victories of women around the world. Topics include: work done through CAW's Social Justice fund, Canada's public health care system, our pension system and social networking! Speakers include Annie Labaj (Director, CAW International Department), Katha Fortier (CAW National Representative, Health Care); and Peggy Nash (Assistant to Ken Lewenza, President CAW).

Can't make the event? Social media sites such as facebook and twitter are great ways to participate in International Women's Day online.
